

Noida Metro cards sale dip: Noida Metro cards sale has dipped considerably in a little over four months of its operation with commuters blaming lack of seamless connectivity and high fare as main reasons behind it. A total of 2,041 such travellers cards were issued during 1 May and 20 May, as against 3,686 in April and 5,064 in March this year, according to Noida Metro data.