NMRC Updates Leasing Policy for Kiosks and Vending Machines to Support Women, Differently-Abled Individuals, and Startups

1. Update on Policy for Kiosks and Vending Machines.

Noida Metro Rail Corporation (NMRC) has updated its short-term leasing policy to promote inclusivity and to support entrepreneurship at its metro stations.

The short-term kiosk policy was launched in December 2024, which provided small business spaces-including kiosks, vending machines, ATMs, and innovative micro-business formats-across all 21 metro stations. These spaces, up to 10 square meters, are allocated on a first-come, first-served basis and aim to support startups, first-time business owners, and aspiring entrepreneurs.

Since its introduction, NMRC has successfully allotted kiosks vending machine spaces under this initiative.

To further boost participation from underrepresented groups, NMRC has now relaxed the rental and solvency certificate requirements for stations categorized under Band 2 and Band 3. This change is specifically designed to ease access for:

- Women entrepreneurs
- Differently-abled individuals
- Transgender persons
- Registered startup companies

The revised rental rates for these categories as under: -

Category	Discount Rate over the existing rate fixed	Station Band	License fee (Rate per sqm per month) after discount		Solvency certificate
			Vending	Kiosk
Differently abled people and transgender	50%	Band 2	Rs, 750	Rs 1250	Rs. 2,00,000
		Band 3	Rs. 600	Rs 1000
Women NGOs and single women entrepreneurs	40%	Band 2	Rs. 900	Rs 1500	Rs 3,00,000
		Band 3	Rs. 720	Rs 1200
Registered Startup company	30%	Band 2	Rs 1050	Rs 1750	Rs 4,00,000
		Band 3	Rs 840	Rs 1400

For availing the benefit, the participants must submit the following certificate in addition to the existing document as per policy.
